Vontobel Asset Management strengthens its presence in the Nordic region and the Netherlands

Vontobel Asset Management has appointed Henrik Rox Hansen as Head of Sales - Nordics and the Netherlands to support the firm's growing activities in these regions.

Henrik brings with him a strong asset management sales background from across Europe. He will be responsible for building Vontobel's presence in the Nordics and the Netherlands, with a focus on both institutional clients and wholesale investors.

Henrik joins from Janus Capital International, where he worked for 13 years in various management and business development roles. Latterly he was Head of Nordics Business, based in Zurich, and over the years instrumental in building Janus' institutional business across the EMEA regions. Prior to this, Henrik was Head of Nordic Business Development for State Street Global Advisers in Brussels. Henrik holds a B.A. in International Business Administration & European Community Affairs from the European Business School in Brussels.

"The Nordics and the Netherlands are important markets in Vontobel Asset Management's strategy. This appointment marks a new stage in diversifying our European client base," said Andrew Raisman, Head of Sales UK & Northern Europe at Vontobel Asset Management.
